

Deja Voodoo

Barry Adamson

There's a sign
Hanging over your door
How I know
Cos I've tasted it before
And my heart
It shivers in the wind
Where you lie
I am forced to come in

Déjà Voodoo

All the stars
In the pretty afterworld
Seem to call
As I watch it all unfurl
And it glows
Like a fairy tale in bloom
When no-one knows
That in hell there's no room

Déjà Voodoo

Take a small vacation from the Hospital of sorrows and we'll
Drown our reservations in the
Hopes of all tomorrows
Flip back to the here and now
And bring with us a taste
Of what we've never seen before
All that we've never seen before

Déjà Voodoo

I can tell by the light
That everything's gonna be right
Cos you know from the start
There's always been love in your heart
When you slide from the past
Guess I think that this treasure will last
Cos you know from the start
There's always been love in your heart
