

Up In the Air

Barry Adamson

I took a ride
At ninety-five
I start a glide
Up in the air where nobody can get me

High
You wanna try
Oh, baby, we could fly
Up in the air where nobody can get me

Baby, I'll sell you the rights
For the right track, baby
And I know how to grease the connection
I'm livin' under my home
Drinkin' blue Blue Stone
And you know that they're here for your confession, baby
We're gonna be here for awhile
For the length of your trial
And you know that I never get tired of singing
Hanging here on the phone
Picture this in your home
And you're wheeling alone, whoa-oh-yeah

I get so alone
Down I go
Into the centre and then below

You'll see the signs
Behind my eyes
Know where to run and know where to hide

Baby, I'll sell you the rights
For the right track, baby
And I know how to grease the connection
I'm livin' under my home
Drinkin' blue Blue Stone
And you know that they're here for your confession, baby
We're gonna be here for awhile
For the length of your trial
And you know that I never get tired of singing
Hanging here on the phone
Picture this in your home
And you're wheeling alone, whoa-oh-yeah

If you're a square
You ain't nowhere
You think I care
Up in the air where nobody can getcha, getcha

High
You think I lie
Oh baby, we could fly
Up in the air where nobody can get me

Baby, I'll sell you the rights
Baby, you should know how to grease the connection

We're livin' under you home
Drinkin' blue Blue Stone
And you know that I'm here for your confession
We're gonna be here for awhile
For the length of your trial
And you know that I never get tired of singing
I'm hanging here on the phone
Picture this in your home
And you're wheeling alone, whoa-oh-yeah

Hit by Daddy at the age of nine
Had a Russian Mama and I made her mine
Keys to the city but I'll never be free
Of a big, black shadow hanging over me
So I get so high and I get so low
And they always underestimate the weight of my flow
And I get so high and I get so low
Don't you ever underestimate the weight of my flow
Oh baby, Oh baby, no way
Oh baby, Oh baby, no way home
