

Broken Bottles

Barry Gibb

I give it up I can't play it if you don't mean it.
You want your lovin on a night time basis.
We don't belong. We don't stand together
Always put your love on the real thing
Always put your love on the real thing
I never wandered
I know my way around
And if you walk away I will not hold you down.
There will be nothing between you and I
I can live without your love,
I can say goodbye
Broken bottles don't mend
I've had enough, you've got me running and I'm all broke up.
My tears will end, there goes the last one now

Ahh ahh ahh ahh
Ohhh
You made my life complete
Baby watch out for the game you're playin
Oh baby got to be sweet, always risk your love on the real thing.
Always risk your love on the real thing.
Where ever I go,
Everything I ever say,
I will be looking back every single step of the way
There will be nothing my love will not break
I battled for your love, I see everything.
Broken bottles don't mend
I've had enough, you've got me running and I'm all broke up.
My tears will end, there goes the last one now
Ahh ahhh
I never wandered
I know my way around
And if you walk away I will not hold you down.
There will be nothing between you and I
Can live without your love,
I can say goodbye

Broken bottles don't mend
I've had enough, you've got me running and I'm all broke up.
My tears will end, there goes the last one now.
Repeat 3 times and fade out
