

I'll Kiss Your Memory

Barry Gibb

Maybe it's been so long
Our house looks kind of different
But the empty room
Still means the same to me

And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

I'll kiss your memory
As though you were here
I'll hold your memories
Till you reappear

And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

I'll kiss the thoughts of leaves that fell
When summer was over
And I'll cherish all the thoughts
You gave to me

And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

I'll kiss your memory
As though you were here
I'll hold your memories
Till you reappear

And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

I'll kiss your memory
As though you were here
I'll hold your memories
Till you reappear

And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory
