

The Day Your Eyes Meet Mine

Barry Gibb

The day your eyes meet mine
Now that will be a day
A million bells from miles around will start to play
I'll take your hand
And side by side we'll walk the avenue
The day that I looked at you

The night your lips meet mine
Now that will be a night
A million violins will play by candle light
And we'll renew the love we knew
Until the end of time
The day your eyes meet mine

And we'll renew the love we knew, until the end of time
The day that your eyes meet mine
