

When The Mist Has Rolled Away

Barry McGuire

When the mist has rolled in splendor
From the beauty of the hills
And the sunlight falls in blackness
On the rivers and the rills
We recall our Father's promise
In the rainbow of the spray
We shall know each other better
When the mist has rolled away

We shall know as we are known
Oh, we're never more to walk alone
In the dawning of the morning
On that bright and happy day
We shall know each other better
When the mist has rolled away
Ooh-ooh-ooh...

Now we're free from all the sorrow
Of the sickly, saddened heart
And we'll forever be together
Even though we're far apart
And as shadows bind with the darkness
So the Son shall free the day
When the shadows have departed
And the mist has rolled away

We shall know as we are known
Oh, we're never more to walk alone
In the dawning of the morning
On that bright and happy day
We shall know each other better
When the mist has rolled away
Ooh-ooh-ooh...

Now we go with joy and gladness
As we gather around the throne
Face to face with those who love us
We shall know as we are known
And the song of our redemption
Shall resound through endless days
When the shadows have departed
And the mist has rolled away

We shall know as we are known
Oh, we're never more to walk alone
In the dawning of the morning
On that bright and happy day
We shall know each other better
When the mist has rolled away
Yes, we'll know each other better
When the mist has rolled away
Ooh-ooh-ooh...
