

Night Thoughts

Barry Palmer

When you call I'm running
To turn you round again
Away from your
Night thoughts

We have a situation
Missiles exploding
They're only your
Night thoughts

And you know when it seems
There's a song in your dreams
And the words fade away
In the light of the new day.

That's all that happens
I wouldn't lie to you
They're only your
Night thoughts

We can change the story
Before we reach the end
Say goodbye
Night thoughts

And you know when it seems
There's a song in your dreams
And the words fade away
In the light of the new day.

That's all that happens
I wouldn't lie to you
They're only your
Night thoughts

We can change the story
Before we reach the end
Say goodbye
Night thoughts

They're just
Night thoughts.
