

Don't Play Games

Barry White

You touch me, baby, but don't cha know
You can't hide, no, no, baby
When you give it up
It's only enough to get me by

You're playin' a game it's so plain
You want me to win
I'm willin' to play what ever you say
If love is the end

Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby
Just you and me
Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby
Nobody but you and me

You start, you stop You know what you got, is what
I need Oh, yes indeed When you give it up
It's only enough to make me see
Ooo, wee

That you're playin' a game, it's so plain
You want me to win
Girl, I'll play, what ever you say
If love is the end

Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby
Just you and me
Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby
Nobody but you and me
