Don't Play Games

Barry White

You touch me, baby, but don't cha know You can't hide, no, no, baby When you give it up It's only enough to get me by

You're playin' a game it's so plain You want me to win I'm willin' to play what ever you say If love is the end

Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby Just you and me Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby Nobody but you and me

You start, you stop You know what you got, is what I need Oh, yes indeed When you give it up It's only enough to make me see Ooo, wee

That you're playin' a game, it's so plain You want me to win Girl, I'll play, what ever you say If love is the end

Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby Just you and me Playin' your game, baby, your game, baby Nobody but you and me
