

Fall

Bars and Melody

I tried to stop myself falling but it didn't work
I would never let you go and always put you first
The path is dark when you feel alone
The only time I get to do it is when I have to go
The cry of the crowds heading towards the light
Nothing inside of me, too weak to fight
And stand out from the sheep, follow the voice
And leading them by fear but they have a choice
Throw them into the pit, the pit is so dark
But it's easy to escape if you have the spark
The path is so narrow and it's hard to find
Tryna light it up so you can see it blind
And when we're through sing me to sleep
The sun is setting, I'm feeling weak
I feel so weary and tired of this place
Is there another way to escape?

I'm not afraid to fall, I'm not afraid of failing now
I'm not afraid to fall, just don't wanna let you down
I'll prove to you that I'm worthy, I'll show you all
Do I have to fall? Do I have to hit the ground to make you proud?

Too many times, I have hidden what's inside
So many lies, hard to find the truth, when it is disguised
It's not a surprise, that I'm left to feeling this way
I will rise, I will rise again, I will stand tall

I'm not afraid to fall, I'm not afraid of failing now
I'm not afraid to fall, just don't wanna let you down
I'll prove to you that I'm worthy, I'll show you all
Do I have to fall? Do I have to hit the ground to make you proud?

Darkness come and hold me, I am very scared and lonely
I don't know if there is a way to get out this place I'm hoping
Maybe you can come and find me, what is that behind me
It's a animal of some description, has it come to hide me?
From the beast that is searching upon the ledge it is perching
Does it want me to jump, cause my legs they are hurting
Can I take the impact? I don't know if I'm strong enough
And if I fall the world would know I've tried

I'm not afraid to fall, I'm not afraid of failing now
I'm not afraid to fall, just don't wanna let you down
I'll prove to you that I'm worthy, I'll show you all
Do I have to fall? Do I have to hit the ground to make you proud?
