

Oriental

Bars and Melody

She pulling up in an AMG, looking oriental
Baby kinda mental
Told her I'd show her all the ropes, she said baby be my mentor
Swear I will show you more
But I got a flight at 6 in the morning, she had a long day already yawning
Now she pulling up all under me whispering, "what the fuck are friends for?"

She said baby go and lock the door
Maids are in the corridor
She don't want to make no noise, I told her you got no choice
She said let me hear your voice (she said let me hear your voice)

She pulling up in an AMG, looking oriental
Baby kinda mental
Told her I'd show her all the ropes, she said baby be my mentor
Swear I will show you more
But I got a flight at 6 in the morning, she had a long day already yawning
Now she pulling up all under me whispering, "what the fuck are friends for?"

Girl you 'int shy, turn on the light
'Int been a minute I'm already kissing all up in her thigh
She down to her tights, that's what I like
Girl you so tiny, got a lil waist mmm just like Kylie
I skip class okay I'm skiving
They can't my handle getaway driving
Can't pick up right now I'm going round town, that late night thriving
Open the door, put in the keys, get up that mileage
It's so crazy how you put that time in
I can take you wherever, won't look back no, I'm not trying
It's that perfect timing
She trying telling me she love me, baby I'm not buying

She pulling up in an AMG, looking oriental
Baby kinda mental
Told her I'd show her all the ropes, she said baby be my mentor
Swear I will show you more
But I got a flight at 6 in the morning, she had a long day already yawning
Now she pulling up all under me whispering, "what the fuck are friends for?"
