

Teenage Romance

Bars and Melody

Come a little closer, let me get a taste
Looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade
Telling me we don't stand a chance
And it's just another teenage romance

Girl, I know it's late but you a cutie
You know the way I like it girl, I swear you already new me
Green eyes, pale skin, you a baddie
You don't gotta do a thing you already have me
Will you run away in the morning?
Will you break my heart when I'm touring?
Girl, I know you're bad but I'm a demon
Can you hear me breathing? Soon I might be leaving

Come a little closer, let me get a taste
Looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade
Telling me we don't stand a chance
And it's just another teenage romance
Come a little closer, baby, get a taste
Looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade
Telling me we don't stand a chance
And it's just another (just another)
Just another teenage romance

Baby, how do I get you to my place
Tell me how you like it, girl, I don't wanna time waste
My hands, your hips, yeah, I wanna taste
Baby, you could do your thing, let it be at my place
I see you pretty girl, yeah, you're shining
I already know that you like that fine dining
Forget about your ex, let me be your silver lining
You like the arrogance, I see you smiling

Come a little closer, let me get a taste
Looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade
Telling me we don't stand a chance
And it's just another teenage romance
Come a little closer, baby, get a taste
Looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade
Telling me we don't stand a chance
And it's just another (just another)
Just another teenage romance

Baby, how do I get you to my place
Tell me how you like it, girl, I don't wanna time waste
Forget about your ex, let me be your silver lining
You like the arrogance, I see you smiling
