

Black Beatles Parody

Bart Baker

This is really confusing
Yeah what the hell are they wearing?
This song's so dumb we're freezing!
Rae Sremm, Guwop, Mike WiLL!
Why does the entire crowd look like mannequins?
I think we've just baked again

Mike will's our music producer
One day he had a song idea
Make a song bout how yall are Black beatles
It could be the biggest hit pf the year
So we wrote a bunch of lit lyrics
About being giant black insects
We eat plants and, live in trees
We have six legs and two separate pairs of wings

What the hell are yall guys on drugs?
I wasn't talking about bugs
I meant the Beatles like the band
Who's that? Never heard of them
You don't know bout the Beatles?
Are they bugs or people?
They were a rock group who had like a million hit singles
So you're saying we're them?
No but you could be the black sequal
Slow down you are confusing us
And we're not the only ones
Look at the crowd!
What the hell are these damn lyrics about?
This song makes no sense, plus it's so boring!
They're comparing themselves to bugs?
No!
That's what it seems

Boy I was wrong about this song
There's no way it will be a hit
Unless it was featured in some
Viral internet video trend
I doubt that would ever happen
Gucci Mane just got outta prison
He's begging for, us to let him
Feature on this song, it's a dud just let him

I am Gucci Mane I just got outta prison yo
When I rap it sounds like I got a real stuffy nose
My face tattoo is a triple-scoop ice cream cone
Spend more time in jail then at home
Used to be so fat haters said that I looked pregnant
Turns out I was in fact gave birth in jail meet my kid
Used to say "brrr" cause my ice was always gleamin
Now I say "brrr" cause I'm so skinny I'm freezin
Everyone who hears this song is so confused that they freeze
They posting vids with the hastag mannequin challenge see?
The vids are going viral making our boring song a hit!
That old man is Paul McCartney
Who the hell that is?

He is from the band the Beatles
Wait so that old man is a bug?
Unfortunately he's still frozen
Ringo Starr? Why?
I'll tell you, shut up!
Paul thought your song's message is that
You three are as big as our band
That got him so, goddamn mad
He had a stroke actually he might be dead

Nah, that wasn't the message of the song at all bro!

It's not about being in an old band!

It's about being infectious like, big black beetles

No, no it isn't god dammit! Ringo is right, finally someone gets my vision!

There they are! I'm here to exterminate some pests! Ahhh, ooohhhh!
