

Broken

Bart Crow

The places I've gone
The places I've been
Don't add up to where I am, it's a hell that I'm in
I see your face, everyone passes by
Girl I need your strength to kill these ghosts in my mind

Cause I'm broken and I can't find myself
Yeah I'm broken, I can't be with anyone else
I lost my faith and I lost my way, the things I've done I'm just so ashamed
But I've just got to fight for my way home
Cause I'm broken; yeah I'm broken
Scared and all alone

Sleepless nights, they come, they go
I can't close my eyes, I'm too scared to let go
In my mind, I feel your breath on my skin
Lord just keep me safe tonight, I've got to see her again

Cause I'm broken and I can't find myself
Yeah I'm broken; I can't be with anyone else
I lost my faith and I lost my way, the things I've done I'm just so ashamed
But I've just got to fight for my way home
Cause I'm broken; yeah I'm broken
Scared and all alone

They say these things I've done are gonna make me, a better, a better man
But how can this happen if I've lost your love and I've lost who I am

Cause I'm broken and I can't find myself
Yeah I'm broken; I can't be with anyone else
I lost my faith and I lost my way, the things I've done I'm just so ashamed
I've just got to fight for my way home
Girl I've just got to fight for my way home
Cause I'm broken; yeah I'm broken
Scared and all alone
