

Dandelion

Bart Crow

I used to run and now I walk
I used to babble on and now I barely talk
I used to keep a wondering eye, now I sit and stare
I used to try too hard, now I just don't care

She makes me a better man, like whisky and water
She's my loving sun and the daddy's favorite daughter
She's my dirty girl, my dandelion
If I'm smiling, you know she's on my mind
If I'm smiling, you know she's on my mind

I used to punch, I used to crawl
I thought sleeping all alone wasn't bad at all
I used to preach before I pray
Act before I learn and I walk away

She makes me a better man, like whisky and water
She's my loving sun and the daddy's favorite daughter
She's my dirty girl, my dandelion
If I'm smiling, you know she's on my mind
If I'm smiling, you know she's on my mind

Hey, mama, I'm coming, leave the light on
Get those dusty peaches off the shelf
And I'll be there about supper time
And if I'm smiling you know she's on my mind

She makes me a better man, like whisky and water
She's my loving sun and the daddy's favorite daughter
She's my dirty girl, my dandelion
If I'm smiling, you know she's on my mind
If I'm smiling, you know she's on my mind

She's on my mind
