

Desperate Hearts

Bart Crow

Well I've been searchin, for a girl like you
And I've been chasin, down a dream or two
And it gets so lonely, like a dot in this bed
Playin back the memories of the last words that you said

And desperate hearts, they're alone tonight
And feelings of lonely, can kill a man inside
You once said you loved me, but now your feelin's subside
And desperate hearts, just might take my life tonight

Now I'm on the bad side of this rundown avenue bar
I'm pourin out my heart and showin all your scars
I guess that its over girl, cause I guess I pushed too hard
Now I'm out here holdin, my broken desperate heart

And desperate hearts, they're alone tonight
And feelings of lonely, can kill a man inside
You once said you loved me, but now your feelin's subside
And desperate hearts, just might take my life tonight

Now I'm out here walkin, just how far baby I don't know
I'm tryin to clear my mind, from the love that I don't own
I guess its over girl, cause you tore my world apart
And left me countin the pieces of my broken heart

And desperate hearts, they're alone tonight
And feelings of lonely, can kill a man inside
You once said you loved me, but now your feelin's subside
And desperate hearts, just might take my life tonight

Take my life tonight
