

Nothin's Changed

Bart Crow

Ain't nothing's changed
All the bars still look the same
Ain't nothing's changed
Just hoping to know my name
All the cowboys shooting pool
All the preppies looking cool
It's all the same
Nothing's changed

Sitting on this barstool
Just calling out your name
Tired of being lonely
And I hope you feel the same
Just drowning in my beers
Tryna fight back these tears
It's all the same
Nothing's changed

And I still get lonely
When I think of you
And I can't believe
All the hell you put me through
And my heart's still broken
'Cause I'm in love with you
It's all the same
Whoa, ain't nothing's changed

I still sing the love songs
The ones I wrote for you
And in my mind it's make-believe
That you love me too
Ain't knocking at my door
Love don't live here anymore
It's all the same
Nothing's changed

And I still get lonely
When I think of you
And I can't believe
All the hell you put me through
And my heart's still broken
'Cause I'm in love with you
It's all the same
Whoa, ain't nothing's changed

And I still get lonely
When I think of you
And I can't believe
All the hell you put me through
And my heart's still broken
It's all the same
