

Once A Day

Bart Crow

Well this house it feels so empty
Yeah the whole town feels the same
Well I got a wrinkled papers
And I read 'em every day
To take my mind off from losing you
And my heartaches slip away
Once a day

And I've got this old guitar here
She's pretty nice to play
Yeah I talk to her in the evening
She hears every word I say
She takes my mind off from losing you
As my heartaches slip away
Once a day

Once a day I go crazy, once a day I feel so blue
Once a day I wanna die, my price for losing you
And now I feel so empty cause I threw your love away
And I'm stuck with all this heartache, no more words to say
Once a day, Once a day

So if you see me out there,
And you think I'm not myself
Just put yourself in my shoes son
Cause I live in a self-made hell
From the day I started losing you
And my heartache came to stay
Once a day

Once a day I go crazy, once a day I feel so blue
Once a day I wanna die, my price for losing you
And now I feel so empty cause I threw your love away
And I'm stuck with all this heartache, no more words to say
Once a day, Once a day, Once a day, Baby love once a day