

Run With The Devil

Bart Crow

Well I think I'm leavin' here today
I'm gonna pack my bags and walk away
I'm headin' nowhere but I hear that I'll know when I'm there

So I think I'm headed out west
My friends all tell me that Tuscan's the best
Tell my mom and dad I'll write 'em when I have time

Tell my brother and sister I'll miss 'em most
I'll bless 'em each day with the Son and Holy Ghost
I thank you Lord for lettin' me be set free

I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil but he's never catchin' up to me

Never got a chance to say goodbye
Break my plans if I seen my daddy
But from my letters man I'll let 'em know that I'm alright

So I think I'm headed out west
My friends all tell me that Tuscan's the best
Tell my mom and dad I'll write 'em when I have time

Tell my brother and sister I'll miss 'em most
I'll bless 'em each day with the Son and Holy Ghost
I thank you Lord for lettin' me be set free

'Cause I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil but he's never catching up to me

So I think I'm headed out west
My friends all tell me that Tuscan's the best
Tell my mom and dad I'll write 'em when I have time

Tell my brother and sister I'll miss 'em most
I'll bless 'em each day with the Son and Holy Ghost
I thank you Lord for lettin' me be set free

'Cause I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil but he's never catching up to me

Yeah I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil but he's never catching up to me

I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil
I may run with the devil but he's never catching up to me
