

Wasted Time

Bart Crow

I close my eyes and I see you walking away
It's no surprise that you broke my heart today

When you walk out of my door
Love won't live here anymore
You don't listen to a word I say
You just turn and walk away
Now I am down here on the floor
Trying to hold on to our world
But it's all just a waste of time
You go your way and I go mine

The sunrise cast a shadow on my broken heart
Tears in my eyes say my world's still torn apart

When you walk out of my door
Love won't live here anymore
You don't listen to a word I say
You just turn and walk away
Now I am down here on the floor
Trying to hold on to our world
But it's all just a waste of time
You go your way and I go mine

When your heart gets broken, too
Know that's just my gift for you
Every kiss was a waste of time
You go yours and I'll go mine

When you walk out of my door
Love won't live here anymore
You don't listen to a word I say
You just turn and walk away
Now I am down here on the floor
Trying to hold on to our world
But it's all just a waste of time
You go your way and I go mine
I'll go mine
