

Amnesia

Bas

She got a list of her needs
Lost in the blessings I see

She got a list of her needs
I got convenient amnesia
She always threaten to leave
But that ain't no threat to me bruh
Lost in the blessings I see
Last week, my nephew was born, he a Libra
That was a blessing from Ib and Nicole
And now every time when I see bruh

I want a big family with a hand on your knee, other hand on the V
Rather we skip all the rambling and beefing
If you saw my heart then you won't see a reason to Bury the bickering arguing please
You were the spark, help me conquer my demons
My heart on my sleeve till it dropped to my sneakers
Made some mistakes but I'll always believe in you

Do you remember? ('Member)
Back in December (December)
When you were my lover (Lover)
My sweetie lover, ah ah
Aibo wena
Yebo wena
Stole my heart like a robber
If you dance, money go fall oh hey oh
Money go fall oh hey
(Love takes patience, where'd it go?)
If you dance, money go fall oh hey oh

She got a list of her needs
I got convenient amnesia
She always threaten to leave
But that ain't no threat to me bruh
Lost in the blessings I see
Lost in the blessings I see

Oh baby, love takes patience, where'd it go?
Oh baby, love takes patience, where'd it go?
Oh baby

Oh baby, love takes patience, where'd it go?
Oh baby

We were a love forsaken
But a love worth taken
We were enough for a second
Not enough for seconds
So much for love
When shit get ugly
Foul like penalty
We'll never know
