

Mine

Bas

I'd give it all away
You're like my reason for life when my dreams seem so far away
You keep me holding out on faith
I don't wanna go to the war, you the one to give me peace
I can never leave you 'lone even when I'm overseas
If I gotta do a show, you're coming with me Baby girl, you are primetime, I don't care if everybody see

Couple weeks I had to leave, now I'm coming back off road
and don't let me go
and don't let me go

No one, nobody
And I don't care about the rush
You're mine
No, no one, nobody
And all it's taken, all this time
You're mine

Tell me you love me, put no one above me, even when it's ugly, if money get low Tell me you trust me even when it's one thing right after the o ther, the nerve of these hoes Tell me you miss me, I know it's been fifteen long days since I been away
Tell me you you waiting at home with the baby and tell her that daddy so proud of the way She teaching her mama and daddy to be more like kids and still handle the biz on the road
'Cause I got a dream that I never could seem to shake, excited to see where it goes I love the environment I could provide you with just off of wri ting 'bout you in these songs You taking me higher, no need for a lighter, the spark to fire inspired this poem, gone

Couple weeks I had to leave, now I'm coming back off road
and don't let me go
and don't let me go

No one, nobody
And I don't care about the rush
You're mine
No, no one, nobody

And all it's taken, all this time
You're mine
