

Hush Boy

Basement Jaxx

There we were at a table for two
What with a glass of bubbly and my brand new shoes
Found the restaurant on the internet
This Mexican place, but they haven't finished it yet

He took my hand and said,
"I love your eyes, your lips, your hands, your toes"
He seem intoxicated
As he started to chat ?
I put my fingers to his lips and said

Hush boy (if you want me for your girlfriend)
Just take it slow big boy, there's no need to rush it
Hush boy (if you want me for your girlfriend)
Come on boy, don't play it tough

So the food was good, I had a chicken fajita
But he finished the plate and had four margaritas
As we gazed into each other's eyes
His ex walked in with her brand new guy

My man he tried and jumped on me
To kiss my arms, my legs, my hips, my lips
He knocked the drinks everywhere
As he started to make an apology
I covered his mouth with my hand and said

Hush boy (if you want me for your girlfriend)
Just take it slow big boy, there's no need to rush it
Hush boy (if you want me for your girlfriend)
Come on boy, don't play it tough

Hush boy
Just for the first date
Hush boy
You shouldn't worry cause I like you we should have some fun

Seamlessly
Those butterfly kisses all over me
Now dancing eyelashes
Sometimes dreams come true

I know I talk too much most of the time
Especially when I'm on the beer or on the wine
You just make me want to push your buttons in
Too much girl when you blush
Hush Girl you M.O.V.E. me
L.O.V.E.
That's all, that's coming from me.
You're so sexy when I'm treading on dangerous ground.
You bite your lip I just get hard when I see you frown.
I want you to be m-my one and only.

Hush boy (if you want me for your girlfriend)
Just take it slow big boy, there's no need to rush it
Hush boy (if you want me for your girlfriend)
You know I don't wanna muck things up

Cos I'm into you much too much
Come on, give me a little of your time, before you make up your mind
