

Hall of Mirrors

Basia Bulat

Last time that I saw you
You were lighting up a show
You got your own hall of mirrors, baby
On and on they go

Now it's been so long since I have heard you
Singing your own song
You walk in a hall of mirrors laughing
On and on and on

You sing, "oh oh oh oh oh, baby"
Baby, baby, baby, are you lost?

Staring at your hands
You wonder where your time has gone
Walk in a chain of admirers
Who don't see you at all

Now it's been so long since I have heard you
Singing your own song
You walk in a hall of mirrors laughing
And you don't know who you are

You sing "oh oh oh oh oh, baby"
Baby, baby, baby are you lost, baby?
Baby, baby, baby are you lost?

Who will you see if you look back?
Are you lost?
Who will you see if you turn back?
When you sing "oh oh oh oh oh, baby"
Baby, baby, baby, are you lost, baby?
Baby, baby, baby, are you lost?

Who will you see if you turn back?
Who will you see if you turn back?
Who will you see when you turn back?
