

Butterfly

Basia

Your love took me by surprise
Your love took me by surprise

Walking wounded for the longest time
Dodging Cupid's little arrows
A good friend, still a bridesmaid, not a bride
Why another broken heart?

Never wish for a gift
Don't expect it
Floating adrift
Disconnected

Your love took me by surprise
Your love took me by surprise
Your love took me by surprise
Your love took me by surprise

Push aside any doubt
It's arrived
It's the prize
Seize the day
Ride the tide
Float on air, butterfly

Your love took me by surprise
Your love took me by surprise

Do not mind if I duck and dive
And treat your kindness with suspicion
One cold word from you could mean goodbye
I'd end up feeling like a fool

Never wish for a gift
Don't expect it
Floating adrift
Disconnected

Push aside any doubt
It's arrived
It's the prize
Seize the day
Ride the tide
Float on air, butterfly
Butterfly

Your love took me by surprise
Your words took me by surprise
Your eyes took me by surprise
Your smile took me by surprise

Your love took me by surprise
Your love took me by surprise

Is it really my turn?
Are you really the one?
From now on, is it us?

Is it us?
