

Liang & Zhu

Basia

I found someone I adore
I found love worth waiting for
He's with me but to my regret
He looks at me and doesn't see me yet

Deep inside I know I'm good enough
To help his dreams come true
Deep inside I know I'd give my life
And die for love like Liang and Zhu
'Cause their love was just a butterfly

I found someone I adore
I found love well worth dying for
He's with me but still to my regret
He looks at me and doesn't see me yet
Though looks at me he doesn't see me yet

Butterfly lovers
Butterfly lovers
They ran out of time
Forever butterflies

Deep inside I know I'm good enough
To help his dreams come true
Deep inside I know I'd give my life
And die for love like Liang and Zhu
'Cause their love was just a butterfly

I found someone I adore
I found love worth waiting for
He's with me but to my regret
He looks at me and doesn't see me yet
He looks at me and doesn't see me yet
