

Matteo

Basia

Can you ever plan to be surprised
Be ready for the new and unexpected
You're old enough to know by now
What life is like, well you've seen it all before
But suddenly he would look into your eyes
But suddenly you can't breathe, you lose your mind

Matteo, ooh Matteo
And nothing ever will be the same again
From this point your guarded heart
Will never be the same

Can you ever plan to be surprised
Be ready for the new and unexpected
Somewhere down the line he'll know no doubt
This love will shred your heart, leave you wanting more
And suddenly he would look into your eyes
And suddenly you can't breathe, you lose your mind

Matteo, oh Matteo
From this point your guarded heart
Will never be the same

But suddenly you would look into his eyes
But suddenly you can't breathe, you lose your mind

Matteo, oh Matteo
And nothing ever will be the same again
You know that nothing in your life
Will never be the same

Matteo, oh Matteo
And nothing ever will be the same again
From this point your guarded heart
Will never be the same
