

Obviously

Bass Santana

Two hoes in a day
Could of had 3 but I'm safe
The name bass (/bās/) not bass (/bas/) bitch
Say it right or run my fade
Why these niggas stay blabbing?
I don't like to talk less I'm rapping
They could never sell me a dream cause I'm stuck in a nightmare I see when y ou capping
Obviously a nigga can't shake me
Obviously a bitch can't break me
They don't throw shade but they shady
Stay playing games on a daily
Can't let it phase me
Can't let it taint me
Hustle for a long as it take me
Gotta thank mom for the basics, just got paid imma cop me an acre
I don't want no damn neighbors

Bitch I'm selfish
I never knew what wealth was
I had to get it on my own none putting me on nobody trying to help me
Got me like so what nigga that's real shit
Ain't been social cause I'm trying to deal with
I just been focus I just been building
I can be hopeless I can be fearless

Got me like so what nigga we here
Got me like so what nigga we here
Got me like so what nigga we here
Got me like so what nigga we

You was in the study, I was in the studi (studio)
I was going numb, ain't nothing much could move me
I don't feel nomore, that pain made me immune
I keep that motherfucker cold until its june
White Jesus won't save you
I won't go to church but I fucked a couple angles
Moving with the work I be skeptical of strangers
Never really know a nigga motive till he aiming
When I was somebody, everybody knew me
When I fell to nothing, no one would pursue me
How you love me but don't mind if you would lose me
Fuck a promise nigga this is how they do it
Used to being plugged in my nigga damn
Its just me and God, fuck a middle man
From the fear of death niggas making bands
After life plans fuck that I got used to being lonely and not being wanted
I got used to chasing things that I just can't catch
I turned my back on those that show me love
And I lose it for the ones that's hard to get Fucked my heart until it turned to black
Smoke my pain away my lungs was next
But I'm living life with slim to no regrets
Living life with slim to no regrets
