

To Be The One

Bassjackers

I make it rain yeah, I scream your name
Just to be the one you want
To be the one you want
I shoot to kill yeah, I rob and seal
Just to be the one you want
To be the one you want

We got problems that we just can't fix
We got dollars but we still ain't rich
We got haters in the bathroom gettin' it on
We got time but we still so late
We got habits that we just can't fake
We get down but it all don't matter because

We can lie awake in the sun
Drink till all the feeling is gone
Use it all to live while we're young
(To be the one, to be the one)
We can lie awake in the sun
Sell some things that never get done
Use it all to live while we're young
To be the one you want

Love is the cure when the lines are blurred
And we are everything, we are everything
Oh oh, even when we run outta gas
And the credit don't work no more
We still got everything, we still got everything

We got problems that we just can't fix
We got dollars but we still ain't rich
We got haters in the bathroom gettin' it on
We got time but we still so late
We got habits that we just can't fake
We get down but it all don't matter because

We can lie awake in the sun
Drink till all the feeling is gone
Use it all to live while we're young
(To be the one, to be the one)
We can lie awake in the sun
Sell some things that never get done
Use it all to live while we're young
To be the one you want
