

Distorted Light Beam

Bastille

It isn't enough to start a riot
Distort the light beam until I like me
It isn't enough, if this is real life
I'll stick to dreaming, come see what I see

Feeling like, if this is life
I'm choosing fiction
Oh, woah, oh, woah
Call it faith, call it fame
The fantasy's the same, uh

When I'm dreaming tonight, I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can go anywhere
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can be anyone
So don't wake me up, don't wake me up
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can go anywhere
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can be anyone
So don't wake me up, don't wake me up

Leveling up, delete my history
Choose how you see me and the future's easier
Leveling up, in here, I'm winning
Defeat the big boss, game over, your loss

Feeling like this ain't life
I'm choosing fiction
Oh, woah, oh, woah
Call it faith, call it fame
The fantasy's the same so

When I'm dreaming tonight I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight I can go anywhere
When I'm dreaming tonight I can be anyone
So don't wake me up, don't wake me up
When I'm dreaming tonight I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight I can go anywhere
When I'm dreaming tonight I can be anyone
So don't wake me up, don't wake me up

Will I ever, will I ever
Will I ever wake up?
Hope I never wake up
I never get tired
No, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no

When I'm dreaming tonight, I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can go anywhere
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can be anyone
Don't wake me up, don't wake me up
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can go anywhere
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can be anyone
So don't wake me up, don't wake me up
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can do anything
When I'm dreaming tonight, I can go anywhere

When I'm dreaming tonight, I can be anyone
So don't wake me up, don't wake me up

And when I'm dreaming, I can do anything
So here I go
