

Future Holds

Bastille

Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you, got you
Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you
No, no, no
Don't matter if I got you, got
Don't matter if I got you

It's not about my dreams
I'll get over my nightmares
Don't wanna just wake up
At the ending

Don't blink, I'll miss it all
And dead boys don't remember
The shit we never did
Will haunt us

I can't live fast and die young
Obsessing over the future
(Horizon)
I come undone when you're gone
Just looking over my shoulder
(Behind ya)

Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you, got you
Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you
No, no, no
Don't matter if I got you, got
Don't matter if I got you

No dress rehearsal life
No refunds, no rewinding
Don't lose sleep over the truth
We can't find it

Their happy-ending myth
I'd settle for religion
Some champagne-popping bliss
To remember

I can't live fast and die young
Obsessing over the future
(Horizon)
I come undone when you're gone
Just looking over my shoulder
(Behind ya)

Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you, got you
Who knows what the future holds?
Doesn't matter if I got you

Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you, got you

Who knows what the future holds?
Don't matter if I got you

Who knows what the future holds? (I don't know)
Don't matter if I got you, got you (I got you)
Who knows what the future holds? (I don't know)
Don't matter if I got you (Got you)

Who knows what the future holds? (I don't know)
Don't matter if I got you, got you (I got you)
Who knows what the future holds? (I don't know)
Don't matter if I got you (Got you)
