

Good Lesson

Bastille

Oh you were always stronger than I was
Oh you were always stronger than I was

Oh Delilah
On a summer night, you came for me
My eyes were wide shut, opened my mind
Said you loved me
In the heat of it, I replied
""Drunk lust is blind, love, can't choose your type""

You were always stronger than I was
Oh, you were always stronger than I was

I got a good lesson in love
Taught through my bed
Like a wildfire
You showed me
A good lesson
Good, good lesson
Good lesson in love

In the morning
With a heavy head, an empty bed
Had a good time, you can't hold a good time
Oh you played me, like I was music made by your hands
Still ringing out and echoing around

You were always stronger than I was
Oh, you were always stronger than I was

I got a good lesson in love
Taught through my bed
Like a wildfire
You showed me
A good lesson
Good, good lesson
Good lesson in love

The weaker you made me, the stronger I felt
The higher you built me, the further I fell
The weaker you made me, the stronger I felt
The higher you built me, the further I fell

You were always stronger than I was
Oh you were always stronger than I was

Cos I got a good lesson in love
I got a good lesson in love
From you, good lesson
Good, good lesson
Good lesson in love

I got a good lesson in love
Taught through my bed
Like a wildfire
You showed me

Good, good lesson
Good lesson in love

A good lesson
Good, good lesson
(You showed me)
(A good, good lesson)
(You showed me, you showed me)
(A good lesson in love)
