Nordland

Bathory

Land of unforgiving winter Cold, clad in white, under a dark grey sky Silent, the wind, it whispers Pale sun of gold, gazing from far up high

Endless forests, lakes of water dark and deep Misty mountains, where giants sleep

Nordland

High about all, the ravens Spreading their wings to fly to the hall up high Messengers of the all fathers Oden behold all with his one eye

Eagle soaring, old crow cries
This land and heaven, forever tied

Nordland

Cold the waves along the shoreline White wolfs realm from here to mountains high afar Land of ours since it rose out of deep cold sea Shine on our path, yes brightest of all, Northstar

Foreverdark woods, cold winds sweep Barren landscape, untamed and bleak

Nordland
