

Last Goodbye

Battle Beast

So you'd think I was down for the count
Like I'd settle for a curtain call
I'm digging in, show you what it's about
How I get up every time I fall
Crucified a thousand times
Bring your worst and I'll take on it all
Break my bones, burn my body to dust
But you're never gonna kill my soul
Cause you left me bruised but unbroken

How your world is turning faster
So much higher you can go
Though outnumbered by the bastards
Hell, you'll live to bury 'em all
In your eyes the open highway
'Neath your wings the open sky
Cause you're all too tough and in no rush to die
And this ain't the Last Goodbye

Through it all
Never down for defeat
It's gonna take more than this hell to break me
Took the fall
Now I'm back on my feet
So don't be waiting for the bell to save me
With each blow I take I grow stronger

How your world is turning faster
So much higher you can go
Though outnumbered by the bastards
Hell, you'll live to bury 'em all
In your eyes the open highway
'Neath your wings the open sky
Cause you're all too tough and in no rush to die
And this ain't the Last Goodbye

How your world is turning faster
So much higher you can go

How your world is turning faster
So much higher you can go
Though outnumbered by the bastards
Hell, you'll live to bury 'em all
In your eyes the open highway
'Neath your wings the open sky
Cause you're all too tough and in no rush to die
And this ain't the Last Goodbye
