

The Burning Within

Battle Beast

Glide through the mists
Taste the wine from your lips
Now the moon of the hunter's arising

Damned or divine
We are walking the line
'tween the virtue and sin so enticing

Forsaken dreams and endless sacrifice
Stolen, your keys to paradise

Let your dreams take to flight
On the wings of the night
Where a story ends soon new ones begin
With your heart open wide
Ever chasing the new rainbow's end
And the fuel for the burning within

Here, unrestrained
In our Eden regained
Taste the life in its savory sweetness

Hold on to your heart
Like you hold to mine
And there's no-one who'd dare stand between us

Now all the things we craved and fantasized
Are laid out here for you and I
Ooh, we'll fly away
