Alive

Battle Tapes

Been sailing seas of the spoiled and the rotten
Been throwing over board the once forgotten
Things you never think about when thinking's such a bore
Somehow or another prim turns on proper
Been licking open wounds of "Why even bother?"
Maybe after cutting your teeth
Start cutting your losses

Let 'em see how we've come undone, yeah
Let 'em see our hearts racing, racing
Let 'em see how you make me come alive

Even shooting the breeze becomes acrimony
You can break my heart, oh
Just do it slowly
Sing another song of how you think you're going to live forever

Let 'em see how we've come undone, yeah
Let 'em see our hearts racing, racing
Let 'em see how you make me come alive
Gotta feeling we're all alone, yeah
Stop trying to make sense, make sense
Let 'em see how you make me come alive

Let 'em see how we've come undone, yeah
Let 'em see our hearts racing, racing
Let 'em see how you make me come alive
Gotta feeling we're all alone, yeah
Stop trying to make sense, make sense
Let 'em see how you make me come alive

Let 'em see how we've come undone, yeah
Let 'em see our hearts racing, racing
Let 'em see how you make me come alive
Gotta feeling we're all alone, yeah
Stop trying to make sense, make sense
Let 'em see how you make me come alive
