

In Too Deep

Battle Tapes

I know you know it
Such a dangerous thing
Some call it flawless
Some say obscene

Even in your wildest fantasy
Drunk behind the wheel from the ecstasy
No one in their right mind could ignore
Working out the details in the dark
If you ever catch this heart of mine
Howling at the moon in the dead of night
Blame it on the ghost only you can see
Baby, I think we're in too deep

Started so slowly
Sowing the seeds
It's never-ending

Patience thinning
Absurd to think it's not

Believe me when I say this is torture
The hardest part is telling you no
So easy to get off on a moment, moment
Forgive forget gone
