

Perish the Thought

Battle Tapes

Are you better now?
Do you carry the same pain?
Time will never tell
Did you lose yourself again?

Forget everything
Memory only serves itself
Such a tragedy
You take for granted until you're someone else

Spinning around until you lose yourself
Almost but never been caught
Speak of the devil, and here you come
Oh no, no, no, perish the thought

I don't mean to raise suspicions now
When were perfectly positioned for
Collision course

Spinning around until you lose yourself
Almost but never been caught
Speak of the devil, and here you come
Oh no, no, no, perish the thought
Spinning around until you lose yourself
Almost but never been caught
Speak of the devil, and here you come
Oh no, no, no, perish the thought

Spinning around until you lose yourself
Almost but never been caught
Speak of the devil, and here you come
Oh no, no, no, perish the thought
Spinning around until you lose yourself
Almost but never been caught
Speak of the devil, and here you come
Oh no, no, no, perish the thought
Spinning around until you lose yourself
Almost but never been caught
Speak of the devil, and here you come
Oh no, no, no, perish the thought
