

Solid Gold

Battle Tapes

Please, please, please me
Please, please, please me

You feel that pressure baby
You feel it taking hold
You tried to lose my number
Instead you lost control

I wanna keep you coming, baby, baby, baby

And not like solid gold, ooh
And not like solid gold, ooh

I remember something better
I remember late night calls
You wanted easy listening
I gave you rock and roll

You keep me crawlin' back like, baby, baby, baby
I think we've crossed a line
It comes as no surprise we fold

And not like solid gold, ooh
And not like solid gold, ooh
And not like solid gold

Please, please, please me
Please, please, please me

Heartbeat's racing after you made
Falling into few, slip into the ruse
Truth is, nothing else will do
Since I've been letting you kiss me
I've got it, I just can't help it darling
I only wanna be your self-inflicted wound
It sees you, baby
The friction between me and you
Show me what makes you human
I'll show you vulnerable
You bend, you break, you surrender

And not like solid gold, ooh
And not like solid gold, ooh
And not like solid gold

Please, please, please me
Please, please, please me
