

The Axeman

Battlerage

Nor did he fear the beast of fire... He feared...
THE AXEMAN!

Once we lose our precious dream there's nothing left to fight
Now you are bound and gagged one last meal is your final right Many have tried you're not the only one waiting for that final mourn
The future's set dawn is coming time is now the mask will be wo rn

Bow down to the axeman hooded figure of mortal fear Bow down to the axeman sun is rising time is near Darkness fills your parting soul mystical power was yours alone

You stole the king's crown of gold claiming his kingdom for you r own
Good and evil clash in battle armies fight into the night
Steel and iron ring out the warning powers on the side of right

The sign of the king unites us all our fight for freedom rages on Against warriors of light many fall our dreams of peace are not all gone
Once we lose that precious dream there's nothing left to fight
Now you are bound and gagged one last meal is your final right
