Bauchklang

you always taking my records

no respect for my records no respect for my soul when i close my door you gonna have to knock you sneak into my place and i tell you that sucks you never say anything

when you taking my things

don't wanna go lookin for my records all if you love my music so why do you have to steal it
don't wanna go lookin for my records all when i get a good feeling you go down and kill it don't wanna go lookin for my records all night you never ever care if i tell you yes or no you are always comin when i want you to go
