Forget yo old friends that always hate

They always got some dumb shit to say
Man fuck them bitches, never liked them anyway
Kick it with my Chun Li
Asian mami got me
Feed me umami
Eat it her edamame
Fold her, origami
Jubilee sparking
You with my arm on
No other by me
She open, we coasting, occasionally astral surfing
Baby bawal know how to handle the business
Build a foundation cause there more than meets the surface
The world ain't perfect, baby i see how you put the work in Still know how to shine when time be the darkest
After i get that slice i reside in your mind
We reach as far as our 3rd eye sight

That ud ever be so, adorable -
Not everybody be blessed with your body
Yeah, U got it all
How does somebody get with
Somebody like u...could i give u a call?
Check in out of town or maybe ride around...
Or stroll through a mall
Whatever U wona do -
Jus tell me about it, and set this day aside
Pick u up around 1 or 2
Let me holla and get that boo
Tell me how do u keep your coool -
Keep it hot while we peek a boo...
In a highland with different views
