

Afternoon

Baxter Dury

Do you remember when we were younger those days?
She slept with him that's what they say
And I borrowed my love from those days
Broken all those hearts, same way

Do remember when, you just let school?
That's the day that all, your friends called
I lay down on daddy's chaise longue
The day you broke all the rules

Did it matter to you?
Did it matter to you?
Was it just another forgotten afternoon?
Did it matter to you?

Do you remember when we did it all again?
It didn't matter so, I was with Ingrid then
The night I, let down your tures
The night we let the cannons fly

Did it matter to you?
Did it matter to you?
Was it just another forgotten afternoon?
Did it matter to you?
Did it matter to you?
Did it matter to you?
