

Alpha Dog

Baxter Dury

It's just another minor speeding offence but it's not your fault

Please don't apologise, this was how you were born

Please hurt me, hurt me

Please hurt me, hurt me

Feels like you are alpha dogging me

But I'm calm about who you are

Sorry for what I said, it was the other me you see

Spitting out truths, nylon cream suits

Dripping with fear, democracy of freaks

Silent fantasies, I don't belong

It's just another minor speeding offence but it's not your fault

Please don't apologise, this was how you were born

Feels like you are alpha dogging me

But I'm calm about who you are

Sorry for what you did, lust from your brow

Forget about tomorrow, no one's ashamed

We're the ones you're scared of, I'm the one you need

Unpredictable till fun is needed

It's just another minor speeding offence but it's not your fault

Please don't apologise, this was how you were born

Feels like you are alpha dogging me

But I'm calm about who you are

Please hurt me, hurt me

All this world of mine

All this world of mine
