

Celebrate Me

Baxter Dury

And he's a brave man eating hummus in the morning
Breakfast imposter, leisure seeking honey sucker
Living on the Thames with his dream boat honey
Big man laughing
And I cry and I cry and I cry when I see you bababoo
And you shiver shiver shiver and I shiver too
I shiver with you, I shiver with you
'Cause you were the bravest of them all and eye of the storm
The Eiffel Tower
The pain that showered and all those mistakes
I'm drowning in these urine lakes

Oh celebrate me, celebrate me
I wanna be the one
Oh celebrate me, celebrate me
I wanna be the one
I've seen those days go on and on
It's just what I am now

And I'm gonna come at you with dollars
Relax in nice colours
Ice swans and bad lovers, shoulder pads
Lick my forehead you white bread eating cockroach
Show me your driving license and all others
At what point to do we stop the cognitive dissonance
The implied nuances and high street lampooning of our brother and sisters

Oh celebrate me, celebrate me
I wanna be the one
Oh celebrate me, celebrate me
I wanna be the one
I've seen those days go on and on
It's just what I am now

I'm gonna come at you with dollars
Relax in colours
Ice swans and bad lovers, shoulder pads

I'm gonna come at you with dollars
Relax in colours
Ice swans and bad lovers, shoulder pads
