Glows

Baxter Dury

Who knows better than the boy who never listened to anything?
Who cares more about anyone after they've gone away?
And I'll hold you closer the moment you've try and let go of me
Starfish, I kiss your face and find my head
To lead us both back home

Everyone lies in bed
Forget about all the rest
We glow

Oh, she glows, and oh, she glows
And glows
Oh, he glows, and oh, he glows
And glows

She glows, and oh, she glows
And glows
Oh, he glows, and oh, he glows
And glows
