Baxter Dury

Hello Margo
Please wake up
Right now
Don't you think I'm special?
I think I'm special
Hello Margo
Please wake up
And I've seen you swimming there
With your hair in the air
All I'll ever do
Spit out the food
Hello Margo
Please wake up

And there's nothing here
And they're not alone
So please don't call
(Please don't call me)

Cause there's nothing here
(Please don't call)

There are things we can talk about
Right now
No one really thinks
We've got a lot of chances
But I am who I am
And we wander off to the country

Just us
Funny little house

Funny little man
But you got what you've got

And there's nothing here
And they're not alone
So please don't call

(Please don't call me)

Cause there's nothing here
(Please don't call)

And they're wandering over here

Cocktails in their hands
Nothing that I planned
Telling me I'm wrong
But they all want a bit now

And there's nothing here
And they're not alone
So please don't call
(Please don't call me)
Cause there's nothing here

(Please don't call)
Please don't call me
Please, please
Please don't call me
Please, please
Please don't call me
