

Walk Away

Baxter Dury

I can't imagine being that pretty
All the bad things that I just said
Causing a outrage all those strangers don't know me don't know you

So its time for me to be quite quiet right now
And then I loft and I walk away from your smile again

Idiots making up business
Sharp heads laughing
Grown up parting
All you just kimber's
All that stupidness
I can't control
My Head

So its time for me to be quite quiet right now
And then I loft and I walk away from your smile again

Please just be gentle
Fact that I'm normal
Make me into something strong
That girl was lovely
But I'm to slow to Make a effort
Say Hello

So its time for me to be quite quiet right now
And then I loft and I walk away from your smile again
So its time for me to be quite quiet right now
And then I loft and I walk away from your smile again
