

Emotion

Bay City Rollers

I want to be around you and play your game
But every time I see you as still the same
I see your eyes they wander carefully
And looking everywhere but into me
(So I look around me)
(Hoping that my eyes can see)

It's all a state of illusion that's come my way
And only you can realize just what to say
Was it a love experience that we had
(One thing leads to another)
(And maybe we'll be together)

It's emotion that your giving to me
(That your giving to me)
(Emotion)
It's emotion that you want me to see
(That you want me to see)
(Emotion)

(One thing could lead to another)
(And maybe we'll be together)

It's emotion that your giving to me
(That your giving to me)
(Emotion)
It's emotion that you want me to see
(That you want me to see)
(Emotion)

It's emotion that your giving to me
(That your giving to me)
(Emotion)
It's emotion that you want me to see
(That you want me to see)
(Emotion)
