My Lisa

Bay City Rollers

Lisa, one more time for old time's sake Come save me, from this crazy world I'm in My dreams are weak and falling into this hole inside my bed Where the pieces of this life we put together Oh, can't you see it in my eyes Lisa, you're the dancer to the song Without your music, all the words just seem so wrong And like a picture you keep fading, your colors running dry Save the pieces of this life we put together Oh, can't you see it in my eyes? Oh, won't you save a place for me tonight Find a space for me and light this corner of my lonely life Lisa, my beginning and my end I need ya You're my lover and my friend My future would be brighter if you'd only answer yes And help me put these pieces back together Can't you see it in my eyes And won't you save a place for me tonight Find a space for me and light this corner of my lonely life
